Dayton Philharmonic Volunteer Association

Each year, the DPVA awards summer music camp and college scholarships to DPYO members and provides funds for the cost of music, sectionals and membership fee assistance. We greatly appreciate the DPVA's support of the DPYO and their work on behalf of the Dayton Philharmonic's Education Programs.

About the DPYO Conductor

PATRICK REYNOLDS is in his 21st season as conductor of the Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra and is celebrating his 23rd season on the conducting staff of the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra where he serves as Associate Conductor. He is a frequent presence on the DPO podium, conducting SuperPops, Rock, Educational, and Family concerts.

An enthusiastic proponent of educational programming for orchestras, each season he leads the DPO in its Magic Carpet and Young People's concerts, reaching thousands of students across the Dayton metropolitan area. In addition, he has conducted Dayton Opera productions of Verdi's La Traviata, Gounod's Roméo et Juliette, Mozart's Die Zauberflöte, Gian-Carlo Menotti's The Consul, Gilbert and Sullivan's The Pirates of Penzance, and Puccini's La bohème. He recently conducted a new COVID-friendly production of La Traviata as part of Dayton Opera's Essential Opera Series.

Dr. Reynolds is Professor Conducting on the faculty of the University of Dayton and was the recipient of the University's Faculty Award in Teaching for 2020. He earned the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in conducting from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and the Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from the University of Michigan School of Music.

He is married to pianist and Czech music specialist, Sonya Szabo-Reynolds, a widely respected teacher and past president of the Ohio Music Teachers Association.

About the Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra

The Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra brings together the greater Dayton area's most gifted young orchestral musicians, providing the opportunity to study and perform a broad range of orchestral repertoire. The DPYO is committed to inspiring an overall cultural awareness and appreciation of music in its members and audiences, strengthening our region's existing school music programs, and helping stimulate interest in the development of school orchestral programs where none exist. Founded in 1937 by Paul Katz, the DPYO is one of the nation's oldest youth orchestras, celebrating its 80th anniversary this year.

The DPYO performs three concerts each season. In 2002, 2004, 2006, 2014 and 2019 the group was invited to perform at the Ohio Music Education Association conferences.

The Youth Orchestra regularly appears on the Dayton

Philharmonic Orchestra's Family Concert Series, featuring collaborations with Cirque de la Symphonie, Zoot Theatre, Platypus Theatre, the Dayton Ballet II Senior Company, the Gem City Ballet, the South Dayton Ballet, illustrator Rob Shepperson, performance artist Dan Kamin, and the Magic Circle Mime Company. In March 2008 a chamber orchestra from the DPYO participated in a production of Hans Krása's opera Brundibar in a collaboration between the DPYO, the Dayton Opera, the Kettering Children's Choir and the Victoria Theatre Association.

DPYO is supported by the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra, the Association of Parents and Friends of the Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra, and the Dayton Philharmonic Volunteer Association. The orchestra is affiliated with the Youth Division of the League of American Orchestras.

CAROLINE BENTON, violin

Sinclair Community College, Undecided

Years in DPLYO: 2

Favorite Memory: My favorite memory in DPLYO was the Harry Potter Family Concert. It was so incredible to play such challenging and beautiful music for a sold out concert.

CALEB CHUN, violin

Miami University, Undecided

Years in DPLYO: 3

Favorite Memory: During one of our first concerts I broke a string and had to play the entire thing on just three strings! It was a challenge, but I was able to do it!

ELLIE BRUBAKER, violin

Liberty University,
Music Education

Years in DPLYO: 1

Favorite Memory: Honestly, I think this whole year has just been incredible for me because this is the first time I've had the opportunity to play with a full orchestra. It's an entirely new experience, and one I will always remember.

LAUREN COMBS, bassoon

Miami University Oxford, Psychology and Spanish

Years in DPLYO: 3

Favorite Memory: My favorite memory from DPLYO is during my first year at campout it snowed the whole weekend and we could see it from our rehearsal hall while we played. It was so beautiful and it perfectly depicted how beautiful winter can be.

ALBERT CHOI, cello

Duke University,

Years in DPYO: 2

Favorite Memory: My favorite DPYO
memory is the Harry Potter concert!

ABBIGAYLE HESS, bassoon

University of Cincinnati,
Bassoon Performance

Years in DPYO: 4

Favorite Memory: My favorite DPYO
memory was getting to go to Camp
Kern every year and have so much fun playing music and the whole experience!

LILY DAVIS, cello

Ohio Wesleyan,
Graphic Design

Years in DPYO: 3

Favorite Memory: 2019 Camp Out and all of the SNOW! And the Harry Potter performance at the Schuster Center.

MELINDA JIA, violin

University of Cincinnati,
Business

Years in DPYO: 2

Favorite Memory: My favorite memory is the camp out from last year and hanging out with other DPYO members. It was so much fun and such a great experience

CHLOE DELNICKI, oboe

The Ohio State University,

Years in DPYO: 4

Favorite Memory: Harry Potter
Campout with the snow and great music!

SOFIA GEELHOOD, flute

The Ohio State University,
Music Performance
Years in DPYO: 3

Favorite Memory: I have so many amazing memories, but one of my favorites is when we performed Mass of the Children in 2019; it was such a beautiful piece, and working with the Kettering Children's Choir was a wonderful experience.

EMMA JOHNSON, viola

Denison or Miami University,
Biochemistry and German

Years in DPYO: 1

Favorite Memory: Talking with friends during break. I'll miss playing with such a talented group of people.

MASON KIBBLE, trumpet

LUCILLE REED, cello

The Ohio State University,
Cello Performance

Years in DPYO: 3

Favorite Memory: My favorite DPYO memory was the 2019 Campout weekend. It snowed all day when we were there, and despite the near-death experience we had while driving to camp, it was so beautiful. We had snowball fights all throughout the day, and we even made a snowman version of Dr. Reynolds! It was so fun to be there with my friends.

PETER RHYNARD, cello

Ohio University,
Paleontology

Years in DPYO: 4

Favorite Memory: Going hard on snacks at campout, going to Cleveland to perform at OMEA in 2019, running to the Speedway across the street during break to get gummy worms.

CARSON ROHAN, violin

Case Western Reserve University, Biomedical Engineering

Years in DPYO: 1

Favorite Memory: Considering that I am new, just getting in and playing engaging music with this group has been a great experience.

VALERIE SANDERSON, horn

The Ohio State University, Psychology

Years in DPYO: 2

Favorite Memory: Playing our Harry Potter concert at the Schuster Center. It was such a wonderful experience, and I was really pleased with the show we put on. I always love the feeling I get when I'm creating music with such talented players that bring life to what they play. And getting to perform it on such a grand beautiful stage made it all the more exciting and wonderful. I'll still never forget the first dress rehearsal I went to, where I stepped on that stage for the first time.

HUNTER SHEAFER, trombone

Ohio University,
Music Education

Years in DPYO: 1

Favorite Memory: My favorite memory from DPYO would be playing happy birthday for Dr. Reynolds on his birthday.

ANDREW SONG, violin

Johns Hopkins University,
Mathematics and Music Composition

Years in DPYO: 4

Favorite Memory: I loved the campouts- I got to talk to a lot of people outside of a rehearsal context, we got to decide on program details last year, and we had a lot of fun.

MACY STEPHENS, violin

Indiana University,
Music Education

Years in DPYO: 3

Favorite Memory: My favorite DPYO memory is my first time performing at the Schuster Center. I was terrified and beyond nervous, but I so distinctly remember hearing the broad acoustics and being so excited to perform with my peers!

COLIN STEWART, bass

The Ohio State University, Engineering

Years in DPYO: 4

Favorite Memory: The first time performing at the Schuster

ANNA YANG, violin

Massachusetts Institute of Technology,

I'll miss making music with an amazing group of musicians!

ALAYNA STOUDT, cello

Indiana University, Kent State University or Ohio University, Linguistics

Years in DPYO: 1

Favorite Memory: My favorite memory is probably the full body Rock Paper Scissors game we played. That was hilarious.

ELIZABETH YOUNG, bass

Pursuing a career in double bass performance

Years in DPYO: 4

Favorite Memory: My favorite memory has to be playing at the Schuster for the first time.

ALICE WAGONER, viola

Ohio University or Denison University,
Music

Years in DPYO: 3

Favorite Memory: My favorite DPYO memory is from camp out two years ago. It snowed pretty heavily, and we made snowmen and then played cards in one of the cabins.

JOE WILSON, tuba

Cedarville University, Biology

Years in DPYO: 1

Favorite Memory: Just coming to rehearsal and playing.

Acknowledgements

We gratefully acknowledge the generous financial assistance of the Dayton Philharmonic Volunteer Association. We would like to acknowledge the tutoring of the public and private music teachers who have assisted in the growth of these fine young musicians in the Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra.

Association of Parents and Friends of DPYO

We gratefully acknowledge all of the DPYO parents for their time and support of the Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra.

Inspire Learning!

A UCLA analysis of a U.S. Department of Education database tracking more than 25,000 students over ten years showed that students involved in music generally tested higher in reading proficiency exams and standardized tests than those who had no musical involvement. The study noted higher scores for musicians in all socioeconomic groups.

Your gift to the Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra can help ensure that area children have this music advantage. Just $375 sponsors a youth in the orchestra for the entire year! Please give today by contacting Ruth Reveal, Director of Education, at 937-224-3521 ext. 1118, or reveal@daytonperformingarts.org, or make a full or partial sponsorship gift online at www.daytonperformingarts.org designated to the Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra.
